

Christian Jerofke

MANAGING PARTNER

Christian Jerofke, born in 1964, has been a managing partner of consenso Consulting GmbH since 2013.

After completing his business science studies at Giessen University, Christian Jerofke started his professional career in the purchasing department of a renowned trading company.

As a line manager, he took over responsibility for areas like purchasing, house management and organisation of leading companies. In connection with his tasks and positions, Christian Jerofke was responsible for the implementation of new ERP and analysis systems from the customer perspective.

In 2007, he started as a consultant with global-e-net ISS and has continued his career since the relaunch under consenso Consulting GmbH.