

Rainer Nolte

MANAGING DIRECTOR

Rainer Nolte, born in 1966, has been one of the company's managing partners since its business formation in the year 2000. In addition to the area consulting, he is also responsible for development and strategy consulting.

Following his studies in business administration at the University of Paderborn, Rainer Nolte started as project manager for Metro AG and gained his first experience in the retail and trade environment. As consulting director for the companies S&P and subsequently TDS AG, he accompanied and was responsible for a variety of projects for renowned companies until 2000.

In the year 2000, Rainer Nolte and Andreas Lorch founded the company global-e-net ISS, which was relaunched in 2008 as today's consenso Consulting GmbH.

Since the beginning of the self-employment, Rainer Nolte has consistently focused on the retail environment – being responsible for the execution of various projects. Among others, Rainer Nolte was responsible for projects such as BayWa 200+ for the company BayWa before he took over responsibility as program manager for EDEKA's LUNAR project.
